Re: Trial Court Vacancy Commission

Dear Mr. Box,

This letter is to inform you, acting pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, § 17-4-301, I am reappointing you to serve as a member of the Trial Court Vacancy Commission. Your term begins immediately, ends January 31, 2028, and is served at the pleasure of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the appointing authority.

I am forwarding a copy of this letter to the Administrative Office of the Courts. Director Michelle J. Long's office will be contacting you in the near future regarding this appointment.

I am confident that you will perform the duties of the office with the high standard of professionalism, dedication, and integrity that the citizens of Tennessee deserve and expect of their public servants.

Best Wishes,

/s/ Speaker Cameron Sexton

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

SECTION 1. This act is known and may be cited as "Bentley's Law."

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 39, Chapter 13, Part 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if a defendant is convicted of a violation of § 39-13-213(a)(2) or § 39-13-218 and the deceased victim of the offense was the parent of a minor child, then the sentencing court shall order the defendant to pay restitution in the form of child maintenance to each of the victim's children until each child reaches eighteen (18) years of age and has graduated from high school, or the class of which the child is a member when the child reached eighteen (18) years of age has graduated from high school.

(b) The court shall determine an amount that is reasonable and necessary for the maintenance of the victim's child after considering all relevant factors, including:

(1) The financial needs and resources of the child;

(2) The financial resources and needs of the surviving parent or guardian of the child, including the state if the child is in the custody of the department of children's services;

(3) The standard of living to which the child is accustomed;

(4) The physical and emotional condition of the child and the child's educational needs;

(5) The child's physical and legal custody arrangements; and

(6) The reasonable work-related child care expenses of the surviving parent or guardian.

(c) The court shall order that child maintenance payments be made to the clerk of court as trustee for remittance to the child's surviving parent or guardian. The clerk shall remit the payments to the surviving parent or guardian within ten (10) working days of receipt by the clerk. The clerk shall deposit all payments no later than the next working day after receipt.

(d) If a defendant who is ordered to pay child maintenance under this section is incarcerated and unable to pay the required maintenance, the defendant must have up to one (1) year after the release from incarceration to begin payment, including entering a payment plan to address any arrearage. If a defendant's child maintenance payments are set to terminate but the defendant's obligation is not paid in full, the child maintenance payments shall continue until the entire arrearage is paid.
